Crisis management and employment in Hungary, in Germany and in the EU

Programme

Location Corinthia Hotel Budapest, 1073 Budapest, Erzsébet körút 43-49.
Schedule 16 May 09:30-15:30
Languages Hungarian and German (with simultaneous translation)

09:30 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 10:10 Opening Remarks
Imre Szekeres, Chair of Board of Trustees, József Attila Foundation

10:10 – 10:45 Offer to Hungary
Attila Mesterházy, president of the Hungarian Socialist Party

10:45 – 11:00 Coffee Break

11:00 – 12:30 Panel discussion I: Outlook for the European and Hungarian economies

- The impact of the crisis management on the European Growth
  Michael Dauderstädt, Director FES-Bonn
  Comment by Armin Steinbach

- Way out of the dead end
  Mr. András Vértes, President GKI Economic Research Company Ltd.,
  Honorary Associate Professor, Szent István University, Gödöllő

- Economic Performance and Implications of the Euro-crisis for Germany
  Armin Steinbach, Economic advisor of the Parliamentary Group of the SPD
  Comment by Michael Dauderstädt

12:30 – 13:00 Discussion

13:00 – 13:45 Buffet Lunch

13:45 – 14:45 Panel discussion II: New Ways of Fiscal and Monetary Policy

- Growing chances and possibilities in the Hungarian economy
  Tamás Katona, senior lecturer, Universitas Scientiarum Szegedienesis

- Market Trust, Financial Stability, Turn on Economic Policy Péter Bihari, Associate Professor (Corvinus University of Budapest), presidential advisor (Central Bank of Hungary), PhD. Candidate in economics

- Trade Union Perspectives
  Péter Pataky, MSZOSZ

14:45 – 15:15 Discussion

15:15 – 15:30 Concluding Remarks
Imre Szekeres, Chair of Board of Trustees, József Attila Foundation