FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG
Büro Budapest

Magyar Külügyi Intézet
Hungarian Institute of International Affairs

The future of EU foreign policy and the upcoming EU-team presidencies

Budapest 15 October 2009

Venue: Hungarian Institute for International Relations
Address: Budapest I. Bérc u. 13-15
Tel: 00-36-1-485-3100
Fax: 00-36-1-485-3111

Thursday, 15 October 2009

I. The foreign policy agenda of the next EU team-presidencies, Hungarian perspectives

Chair: Attila Ágh, Budapest Corvinus University

9:00-9:10	Welcome Remarks: Heinz-Albert Huthmacher Director, FES-Budapest
9:10-9:40	Keynote speech: András Inotai: The global role of the EU Director, Institute for World Economics
9:40-10:40	Panel I: András Rácz: European Neighbourhood Policy: Hungarian approach Hungarian Institute for International Relations András Deák: EU-Russia Relations Hungarian Institute for International Relations Sebastian Schäffer: The recent development of the ENP Munich University
10:40-11:00	Discussion: Comment: Jürgen Dieringer, Andrássy University
11:00-11:20	Coffee break
11:20-12:00	Panel II: Gergely Romsics: European Foreign Policy and the global role in the EU Hungarian Institute for International Relations Erzsébet Rózsa: Eumed – Euro-Mediterranean Relations Hungarian Institute for International Relations
12:00-12:40	Discussion

12:40-13:00 Paul Luif: Closing comments
Institute for International Relations, Vienna

13:00 Lunch

II. The foreign policy agenda of the next EU Team-presidencies, European and German perspectives

Chair: János Terényi or László Kiss
Hungarian Institute for International Relations

14:00-14:30 Keynote Speech:
Mario Telo, Institute for European Studies Brussels

14:30-15:00 Panel III:

Göran von Sydow and Fredrik Langdal: The foreign policy in the Swedish presidency
Stockholm, SIEPS

15:00-15:20 Sami Andoura: Belgian approach to CFSP
Royal Institute for International Relations Brussels

15:20-15:40 Ignacio Molina: Spanish approach to EFP
Elcano, Madrid

15:40-16:00 Discussion: Comment: Márta Zádor, Ecostat

16:00-16:20 Coffee break

16:20-16:40 Julia Lieb: The perspectives of the European External Affairs Service (EEAS),
Stiftung Wissenschaft und Politik, Berlin

16:40-17:20 Bea Huszka: The West Balkan integration process
Hungarian Institute for International Relations

17:20-17:40 Attila Ágh: Lisbon External Action and the implementation of the Lisbon Treaty*

17:40-18:30 General discussion

18:30 End of conference